

Pola Busy Rebuffing

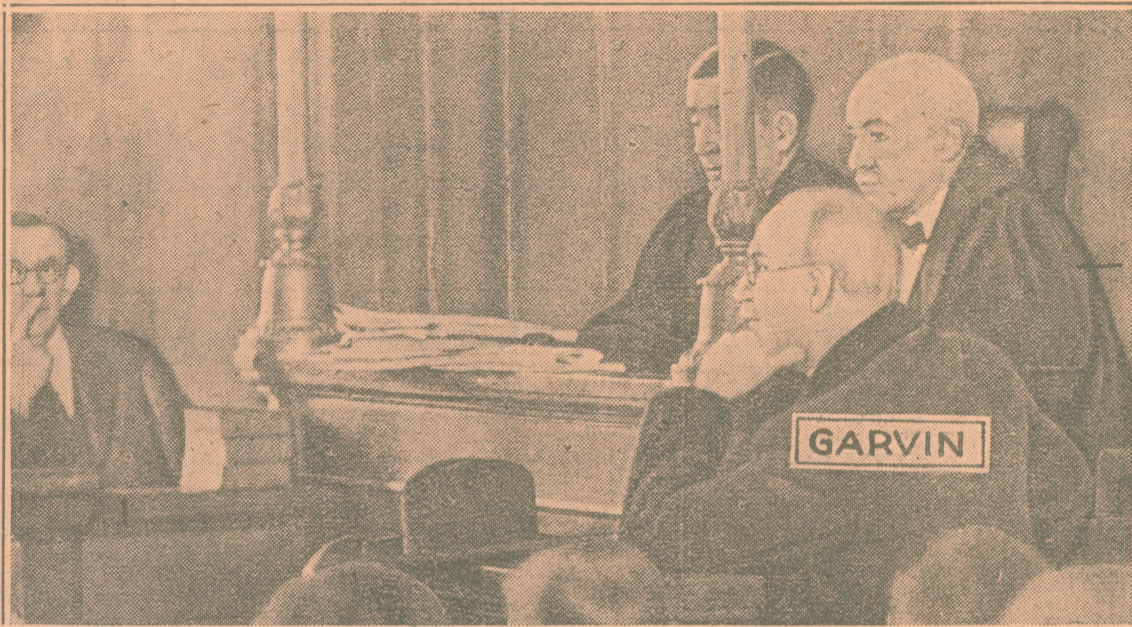

WON'T TAKE BROTHER. Pola Negri (above), is having quite some time convincing Albert Guglielmi, brother of Rudy (inset) that she cannot transfer her love for the late sheik to him. Albert has been hanging around out in Los Angeles, and it is getting irksome to Pola, according to reports. (Photo Graphic.)

SUICIDE FOILED. Arrested on charge of pilfering bank funds, C. Russell Morton, youth who comes from good family, tried suicide in district attorney's office by jumping from seventh story window. Patrick J. Butler is shown examining window through which he tried to jump.

Henry Stevens's Alibi Is Attacked

BRAINS OF "BILLION DOLLAR DEFENSE." Senator Case (left) and Robert McCarter (right) were momentarily taken aback by damaging testimony of Detective Garvin yesterday, but The GRAPHIC learned today they have witness to contradict Garvin's assertions. (Graphic.)

LIEUT. DREWEN ON STAND. Quizzed by Senator Case, defense counsel, in regard to identification of Willie Stevens's fingerprints on calling card found near murder scene, Lieut. Drewen testified to taking fingerprints of Willie Stevens on day of arrest. (Photo Graphic.)
